

PENGOPUSS

JAZZ SWING LOUNGE FUNK

Band bio

Pengopuss is a Bathurst-based 5 piece jazz band that has played locally for over 3 years. 2018 was a stellar year for Pengopuss playing almost weekly shows to appreciative and loyal crowds all over the Central West. Consisting of Glen Wholohan on saxophone and clarinet, vocalist Alyson Laver, Henry Bialowas on double bass, Kalyan Manning on keys and Tony Hatch on drums, they have a well-earned reputation for putting on a great show that showcases vocal and instrumental songs from the Jazz Age right up to jazz, swing and funk interpretations of pop hits!

2019 is shaping up to be another fantastic year for Pengopuss with more originals in the pipeline and even whispers of heading into the recording studio later in the year.
